Deputy Administrator Federal Aviation Agency Washington 25, D. C. Dear Mr. Pyle: The copy of the Air Transport Association's report, Red Star into the West," which you forwarded to me under etter dated 25 June was most interesting. I quite agree that here is a lot in this which would be of concern to us. It is m inderstanding that will be talking to you about it and I am looking forward to hearing your views. I also recall the discussion at the OCB meeting on 4 June in which you participated so effectively. It is hoped we can all make a little faster progress toward implementing he policy which was on the agenda that day. The decisions of he Board appear to be a step in this direction. Sincerely, SiGNED Allen W. Dulles Director AA/OCB/
